VILLAGE ACCEPTS SEWER EXTENSION FROM CONTRACTOR

PWA to Finance 30 Per Cent of Project's Cost of $3,900

The Village of Antioch accepted the sewer extension on Hardin and Spafford streets following the approval of the contractor's work last week by Federal Engineer A. D. Danley and Village Engineer James Anderson.

Arrangements for payment to Joseph Malloy, Libertyville contractor who did the job are now being made. The contractor estimated the job at $3,940 when bids were advertised last December. Such extras as spreading assessments, publication notices, and constructing an electric power line of increased voltage to the pumping station has increased the total bill to a little more than $3,900.

PWA Maximum is $1,300. The Federal government through the Public Works Administration will pay 30 per cent of the estimated cost, with a maximum of $1,300. This amount is in addition to the PWA grant of $2,757 in financing the construction of the new Antioch water tower.

The auditor for the Federal government was in Antioch Tuesday and upon completion of his work, members of the village board will make the requisition to the PWA for the lump sum of money equalling the 30 per cent grant.

Contractor Malloy has already received approximately $2,100 of his bill.

The trustees approved the bond of Clarence B. Shultz, recently elected treasurer of the village, at the Tuesday meeting when he received the village funds from former treasurer, Laurel D. Powles.

He returned to politics in 1929 and continued in office until his death, having been re-elected this year. He was one of the Democratic leaders in Lake county and was regarded as a capable member of the board of supervisors. His only survivor is Miss Clara Miller, a sister.

The trophy was presented by the Illinois Grain corporation of Chicago and Edwards is invited to appear on the company's annual convention program. He was graduated from Antioch Township high school in 1931 where he majored in vocational agriculture and from the state University Monday with honors.

Buy Your Vehicle License at Once! Village Heads Urge

With less than one-third of the Antioch vehicle license tags for 1935 sold, members of the board of trustees are expecting to set a deadline for these collections with fines for delinquents at the next meeting.

In 1934 a total of 354 wheel tax stickers were sold in Antioch, adding $1,109.75 to the village treasury. This was a decrease of $37.22 from the 1933 figure, the village audit discloses.

Village Clerk Roy L. Murrie says that about 100 automobile-owners who reside within the village limits have purchased their local vehicle license stickers.

HICKORY GIRL IS AMONG HIGH HONOR PUPILS IN COUNTY

Mundelein Lad Tops 345
Grade School Graduates;
L. Zurich Girl Third

Helen Thompson of Hickory school was the second highest scholar of the 345 to graduate from Lake county rural schools this year. It is announced by W. C. Petty, county superintendent of schools.

Lawrence Rouse of Mundelein had the highest average in the county, receiving 34.5 more points than the Hickory student. His total was 1493. Third place among the honor students was won by Ruby Marie Boegen of Lake Zurich.

Channel Lake's Win Honors. A total of 50 graduates were selected on the 1935 honor roll with the high pointers. The list included Jean Brett and Harold Atwood of Channel Lake; Robert Kilbride of Lotus country school; Barbara Boone of Wilmet; and Dorothy Spering of Hickory; Elizabeth Erickson of Cedar Lake.

The three with the highest scholastic average were among 16 county school pupils named for the Lindley scholarships which entitles the holder to attend any state normal school in Illinois without the payment of tuition. The other 14 holders of the scholarship are: Virginia Jean Euloe, of North Prairie; Shirley Alm of Browe; Robert Kilbride of Lotus country; Chloe Summers of Stuffed; James Wilson of Round Lake; Edna White of Fox Lake; Joyce Keeler of Oak Grove; Jean A. Davis of Glynch; Barbara Boone of Wilmet; Marion Stahl of Half Day; Russell L. Mitchell of Kelsey and Elizabeth Erickson of Cedar Lake.

Three Lose This Year.

Superintendent Petty's figures show a decrease of only three in the number of diplomas received by this season's crop of graduates under the 343 total who graduated in 1934. Final examinations were conducted under the school superintendent's supervision during the past two weeks and the papers were graded by his assistants.

The Grayslake school, with 26 graduates, led the school districts in the county with the largest number of students completing their eighth-grade courses. Altogether there were 84 village and country educational institutions in Lake county that participated in the county-wide final examinations for the eighth grade.

LAKES BASS SEASON TO OPEN SATURDAY

Ill. Gives Fishermen Best Break; Has Jump on Nearby States

Fishermen who like to battle gamey black bass are getting their rods in shape for the season opening in the Lakes region Saturday.

The lakes in the area around Antioch are sure to have many visitors on opening day and the days following, especially since opening date falls on Saturday this year. There have been good catches of crappie, bluegills and pickerel made in these lakes the past ten days, but with the other states surrounding Chicago still "closed" to black bass, anglers will seek Illinois lakes.

Indiana's bass season opens Sunday where there is a daily limit of six bass (including silver bass) and a minimum length of ten inches, as compared to Illinois' limit of ten daily and a ten-inch minimum. In Wisconsin most of the lakes will be open for bass on June 20; Michigan opens on June 25 where the daily limit is five bass. Only in the southern zone of Minnesota is the season now open with the northern zone opening June 21.

Baseball Gloves Causes Death of Jack Doyle

A baseball glove caught in the front wheel of his bicycle resulted in the death of Jack Doyle, 10, of 8150 Dobson at, Chicago, who made his home in Antioch for six years with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lynch, a cousin of the boy's mother. Death occurred at Jackson Park hospital, Friday morning.

The accident happened on June 2 when a playmate tossed the glove, causing the spill which resulted in a double fracture of the boy's skull. Funeral services were held Monday from the home of his mother, Mrs. Mabel Doyle, with interment in Holy Temple cemetery. Those in attendance from Antioch were: Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lynch, George Lynch, Raymond Baldy, Elgie Sheehan, William Waters and Mrs. W. M. Waters.

Kangaroo Leaper Meets McMillen in Bout Tonight

James McMillen, Antioch's wrestling topnotcher, meets Able Coleman, stocky New York ghetto grappler, in his fourth successive headline appearance in the Western stadium tonight (Thursday).

After three successful weeks against eye-gouging by "Gentleman" Jack Smith, jaw-breaking face-clamps by Olaf Oleson, and the unconscious wrangle of Mehmet Yousif, McMillen must solve the New Yorker's battering Kangaroo Leap which consists of diving spikes first into an opponent's broad-chest, tonsils, solar plexus, or what have you. In Coleman's recent bout with Everett Marshall in Kansas City, both gladiators were knocked athwart the birdies, unconscious, during a wild melee to end in a draw.

McMillen, who has gone unbeaten for more than a year, drew with Fred Grobmyer, Iowa scissor expert in their 30-minute match in Mills' stadium Tuesday night.

Ripley, Please Copy: Hahn Nabs 20-Pound Pickerel with Hands!

What? Twenty pounds of pickerel? Without a struggle? Yes, sir—that's the yarn behind the huge fish displayed this week in the window of Ralph's place on Main St.

Believe it or not, Mr. Ripley, Frank Hahn went fishing in Rock Lake the other day, saw Mr. Pickeral splashing on the water's surface, rowed his boat over beside aforementioned Mr. Pickeral, calmly lifted him out of the water into the boat—and there you are!

As far as local ichthyologists are able to ascertain, Mr. Pickeral succumbed to old-age—or something!

Giving "Dear Old Dad" His Due

Presented by O. S. Klass

Poke all the fun you care to at "Dad" and the celebration of "Father's Day," Sunday. Dad's shoulders are broad, his smile is wide and generous and his capacity for knocks and shies is unlimited. So kid him all you wish. If you get a kick out of it, so will he.

But don't forget these few facts! Dad is the bright particular sun around which all we lesser planets are revolving in a more or less elliptical circle. Without Dad we'd all be a good deal like the contents of a vacuum tube. He not only furnishes the car and the gas for our juvenile journey through school life, but he also helped largely to provide the vehicles for our infantile locomotion—the mother, the home and the three-cornered pants.

He is the prime-mover, the inexhaustible fountain of our spending money; the fall-guy of our childhood days and the friendly counselor of our after-years; daughter's pet, son's pal, and mother's good old standby; the politician's friend and the storekeeper's monthly victim. His one household of trying to make both ends meet should alone entitle him to a preferred seat in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Now get this straight: This enormity of "Dear Old Dad" is no way intended to take away any of the honors and glamour that rightfully belongs to Mother, or to detract one iota from her intrinsic worth and loveliness. But Mother has already had her day. Now, for goodness sake, let Dad have his!

Antioch Fire Leaders Attend State School

BETTER HOMES GROUP PLANS CITY CANVASS

Will Disseminate Information on FHA; Observe
Better Housing Day

Mrs. Irene DeHaven Novotny, interior decorations expert, will be the principal speaker at a meeting of the women's committee of the Antioch Better Housing group Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Mrs. W. W. Warner, chairman of the women's committee, announces.

The meeting, which will be held at the Federal Housing office in the Naber building on Main St., is open to all homemakers in the community and Mrs. Novotny promises to present many household hints and practical ideas.

With the observance of "National Better Housing Day" which was proclaimed for Saturday by Governor Henry Horner, members of the Antioch Better Housing committee are planning a community-wide canvass.

A unique feature of the canvass lies in the fact that, instead of collecting data from home and building owners regarding ability to spend money for modernization work, the canvassers will act as disseminators of information pertaining to the National Housing Act and to the functions of the Federal Housing Administration.

This, according to S. Boyer Nelson, field campaign manager of the Antioch committee, is expected to create still further interest on the part of owners in taking advantage of FHA Title I loans for the purpose of renovation and modernization of homes and buildings.

In view of the fact that the NHA has been amended so that loans up to $50,000 may be insured, instead of the maximum of $20,000 as formerly, the canvassers will have a much wider scope than would have been possible earlier.

Percy Wilson, FHA regional director, tells the local heads that several thousand homes will be launched in this district with the observance of National Better Housing Day, Saturday, when ground breaking ceremonies will be staged simultaneously throughout the State and nation.

M'HENRY PAPER PASSES SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Plaindealer Fourth Oldest Weekly in Neighboring Co.; Four Owners

The McHenry Plaindealer, published at McHenry, Ill., completed its sixtieth year of continuous publication with only four changes in ownership and started its sixty-first year last week.

When started by Editor Jay Van Slyke, who died on September 23, 1906, the newspaper was the fourth weekly to appear in McHenry county. For a time the paper was owned by a stock company, during which time E. J. Hazel, Charles D. Schoonmaker and Frank G. Schriener served as editor. Mr. Schriener was the third owner of the paper, selling his interest to the present owner, Charles F. Renick of Woodstock.

Today, with A. H. Mosher as editor, the Plaindealer is still doing a mighty fine job in giving its readers one of the best country weeklies to be found anywhere.

The Antioch News takes this opportunity to wholeheartedly congratulate The McHenry Plaindealer on its sexagenary anniversary and present its personal regards for long and continued prosperity with many, many, happy returns of the day.

NOTED COMEDY TEAM AT THE KENOSHA

A personal appearance will be made at the Kenosha theatre June 19 by Olsen and Johnson, the famous comedy team which appeared in such pictures as "Fifty Million Frenchmen" and "Oh Sallie Beene" as well as on the stage and in radio programs.

They will be seen with their company in the road show production with which they have been scoring a hit while on tour during the past months, and in which they appeared at a Milwaukee theatre last winter.

At the time of their entry into motion pictures, four or five years ago, Olsen and Johnson had had 15 years of experience on the vaudeville stage together.

EXIT TRAGEDY?

In these stirring times it is not difficult to succumb to an urge. The mental strain brought on by the struggle to make both ends come somewhere near meeting has made vacations a necessity.

As the succession of heat waves begins to close in on the rock piles known as office buildings and apartment houses, the city dweller is overcome with the sudden urge to desert the streets, sidewalks, elevateds, lobbies and go where vacations are available for every purse.

A survey of resorts and furnished cottages in the Lakes region shows that the residents in and around Antioch can provide whatever is desired. On the many beautiful lakes with dandy beaches for the youngsters, the city dweller can find either the dreamed-of camping accommodations or a fully equipped cottage which can be had for a moderate priced outing.

An investigation of the so-called "travel bureaus" in Chicago shows that inquiries about vacations and reservations for accommodations are way above the level of the last three seasons. One resort in the upper peninsula of Michigan reports three times as many inquiries so far this season as had been received last year. A number of resorts in Wisconsin are far ahead of last year in advanced reservations. Northern Indiana's vacation district is likewise way ahead of last season.

With every indication that the great "outing market" of Chicago is going to make a real offensive this season in the direction of lakes and summer playgrounds, should Antioch sit calmly by and watch this business go by?

The vacationist is not going to find it easy to decide which spot to visit this summer. Michigan, for instance, is broadcasting a strong appeal to the camper and fisherman and it has plenty of attractions to lure the vacationists' dollars. Wisconsin is beckoning and even now in the Lac du Flambeau district the camp owners are worried about getting enough guides to take the fishermen on trip to various lakes. Minnesota is not "taking it" sitting down, but is painting alluring pictures of fascinating canoe trips through the Superior forest and the Queen.

Meanwhile, the vast stage is set for the vacation drama of Antioch and the Lakes region. On Antioch's vast stage there are scenes and show changes every day. People will be able to find new things to see and do all the time. And there's a very moderate admission charge to see the entire performance.

But, people are NOT COMING to our show—unless we tell them about the really stupendous, colossal, extraordinary production we have—right here next door to them.

The writer has traveled over much of the United States—has seen America first—in every type of conveyance—but you can hear more things that aren't so about the northwoods and "alluring spots" within 100 miles of Chicago, than the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce ever publicized. And that's no hokey!

Most travelers will tell you that the "garden spot" of the nation is the Lakes region of which Antioch is the center. And that's no hokey, either!

Why not concentrate on that market of people in Chicago with some honest, concentrated selling?

Properly placed publicity may be the stimulant that will keep the vacation drama of Antioch from becoming another tragedy! And that's anything but hokey!

THE END OF THE NRA

It is doubtful if any law ever passed in this country stirred up so much discussion and dissent as the act creating the NRA.

Now, a year and a half after its birth, the argument has finally ended—and all the voices which fought about its legality are stilled.

The Supreme Court has decided that the NRA violates the Constitution. The decision is unanimous, all nine justices agreeing with the opinion read by Mr. Hughes.

Briefly, the court has ruled that Congress exceeded its authority when it delegated the power to promulgate codes of fair competition to the President; that the Federal government lacks the power to regulate hours and wages in transactions affecting interstate commerce; that the NRA is, therefore, invalid.

A newspaper report on the day of the decision says that lawyers close to the Administration believed that the opinion doomed the NRA to complete and permanent extinction; that it would be impossible to redraw the act so as to make it constitutional in the light of the high court's lucidly expressed views.

It is possible that elimination of the NRA will cause a certain amount of hardship in some industries. But, without criticizing the act, the court's decision will be of great benefit to the country. It shows that the constitution is not dead—and that constitutional freedom still exists, and cannot be negated by legislative fiat. The NRA tended to set up government as a dictator over all business—and it is not difficult to believe that the founders of the country would be the first to approve of the Supreme Court's history-making decision.

UNFAILING SERVICE

In the words of an agricultural publication, farm "cooperative institutions, properly organized and managed, have established an unflinching record of service to their members. Unquestionably they have been the means of securing better prices for their products. To-day the principle of cooperation is even more powerfully effective, for the people at large throughout the nation are developing a clearer understanding of the farmer's plight and its relation to general economic recovery."

Few economic and social movements have been given—or have earned—so large a measure of public support as the cooperative movement. It is backed by prominent industrialists, who know that methods that have made business progress possible can do the same for the farm. It is backed by wise public officials, who realize that government farm relief measures are transitory and limited, and that in the long run farm achievement must come from within. And it is backed by intelligent consumers, who know that successful cooperatives are necessary, if the nation is to have a steady, adequate and fair-priced supply of quality food products.

The figures show that cooperatives have been making striking gains in membership during the bleak years of depression. That promises well for the years ahead.

Chinese "Fu" Dogs

The dogs which appear in Chinese sculpture and art are known as "fu" dogs. Their origin is unknown, but one of the meanings of the word "fu" in Chinese is "good luck," and they probably have a good omen symbolism.

GREETINGS ON FATHER'S DAY

Sunday, June 16th

Here's to the man who's my joy and my pride
Whose heart is as big as the whole world is wide.

Let's join the Shopping Parade—the daily throng of thrifty buyers who shop in UPTOWN KENOSHA for Economy, Service and Convenience.

UPTOWN

Kenosha's whole west side business district comprises the section called Uptown. The heart of this thriving commercial center is Kenosha's wide and spacious "White Way"—22nd Avenue. But Uptown Stores are located not only on the avenue but also on its busy cross-streets, Roosevelt Road, 63rd St., 60th St., and in all the neighboring territory.

EASY TO GET UPTOWN

Uptown is located on the West Side of Kenosha, close to the country. It is miles nearer and more convenient for shoppers coming from west of the city. And there are no traffic problems—wide Uptown streets with their two hour parking ordinance do away with all the ordinary vexations of "driving to town to shop."

HOW DO WE GO TO UPTOWN?

Simply take Route 50 east to 39th Avenue. Then continue east on Roosevelt road to 22nd Avenue and its adjacent streets. Uptown is so conveniently located on the West Side, and its hundred-odd up-to-the-minute Stores offer so complete and varied an assortment of very type of merchandise that Uptown is the ideal place to buy.

ADVANTAGES OF UPTOWN STORES

Uptown is a low-rent business district. And Uptown passes its economy on to you with every purchase. The customer saves in Uptown. Moreover, Uptown stores are clean, modern, and well-stocked. Uptown salespeople are courteous and friendly. You will find what you want in Uptown at prices you want to pay, and in stores you will like to buy from.

WOMEN'S PAGE

FLOWERS ARE WORN ON SPRING SUITS

Ascots of Blooms, Scarfs and Garlands Popular.

The fashion for flowers is even adopted by women wearing severe tailored tweeds. With a costume consisting of a stunning suit in rough green accessories, bright pink carnations were pinned on the lapel. Some of these beauties achieved a smart, mannish look with white or red carnations adorning black and white mixture woollens or plain gray suits.

A fashion leader wore carnations with a brown tweed costume and felt hat. At front of her coat collar, a simple turnover one close to the throat, was fastened a spray of dark red carnations, five or six large ones, giving as much color as would a scarf. There are many other posy trimmings. The downtown stores are already well stocked with displays of the white pique flowers which appeared at the openings.

A LA "LITTLE WOMEN"
By CHERIE NICHOLAS

It's chic to be quaint. Which applies to the "Little Women" fashions that are registering so smartly in the season's style parade. The important thing about this new vogue is that one must look the part even to the hair-dress. "Bangs" is the answer, curled primly to top a smooth brow, with hair brushed sleek back over the ears as here pictured. You can see how readily this hairdress blends into the scheme of things, a fact which impressed the delighted audience which attended a recent style revue held under the auspices of the Chicago wholesale market council, where the charming, gingham-checked silk dress here shown with its big sleeves and wide organdie ruffles proved one of the big sensations of this style event. The idea of coiffing hair to the tune of the costume was staged in other fascinating numbers.

Navy Blue Big Favorite in Season's Late Styles

To date navy is top, navy relieved by white, quantities of white, both under the chin and often above it, since many hats have white bands or something white about them.

One of the season's new combinations—navy and champagne—is gaining ground, and navy footwear may also be said to be doing so.

The downtown shops report a live interest in taffeta street dresses, some with jackets. Again navy scores for jacket costumes and for redingotes, the dresses of which are taffeta, and for the redingotes wool.

It is, as has been predicted for months, a big suit season, which makes it also a big blouse year.

FLASHES FROM PARIS

Millions trim with fruit and flowers. Accent is on dark red with oxidized cast, as a new color.

Summer brings run to extremes in size.

Tailored suit takes on sheer lace, batiste blouse with many Yul edgings.

Jewelry of old-fashioned design is worn.

Hats match wraps rather than gowns is latest message.

Now accents are posed at front of tiny hats of pill-box type.

Scarfs, Belts Match. Scarfs and belts of the same material and design are among new ideas in accessories to pep up an outfit that is a bit weary from wear.

Gift Flowers Popular. Large gift floral buttonholes decorated with mother-of-pearl and coral are to be worn with bracelets of similar design.

SILK NET JACKET

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

This exotic silk print evening gown is white with green florals widely spaced. The silk net "butcher boy" capelike jacket is in the same shade of green. Front, back and the sleeves are pleated. This very beautiful twosome is worn by Gladys Swarthout, the lovely opera and movie star who was recently chosen as one of the ten best dressed women in America.

Pastel Colored Kids Are Latest Note in Footwear

Pastel colored kids are the next foot note. They come in pale powder blue, dusty pink, soft green and yellow, and they are designed in high cut-out sandals for afternoon wear with light frocks.

The new beach sandals come in white and eggshell linens bound with bright orange, blue or red kidskin strips to match the beach outfit.

Alaska Reports Boom in Business During 1934

Juneau. — Alaska experienced its greatest boom in years during 1934, figures compiled by the territorial chamber of commerce has revealed.

Exports totaled $61,317,369 in value, an increase of $16,000,000 over 1933.

Imports were $30,275,478, an increase of $9,000,000.

Principal exported items were fish and gold. Shipments of gold totaled 454,962 ounces, an increase of 70,165 over 1933. Steamships operating between Alaska and the states carried 24,000 passengers, a gain of 7,302 over the year before.

Statue of Liberty Gains in Popularity

Washington. — A register for visitors, hidden in a nook of the Statue of Liberty for nearly 40 years, has been discovered.

The book contains 1,500 pages, each page having 54 signatures. The signatures are those of persons who visited the famous monument in New York harbor between 1890 and 1900.

Comparing data found in the old book with that shown in last year's register, George A. Palmer, acting superintendent of the statue, was amazed by the immense increase revealed in the number and range of visitors.

Forty years ago, it was revealed, only 11 states were represented by 60 visitors who registered on August 8, while on August 8, 1934, 1,292 actually visited the monument and 570 registered. Thirty-six states were represented in the latter group.

Huge Project to Save Texas Soil Is Planned

Temple, Texas. — A vast plan to control soil and water losses throughout Texas, embracing the expenditure of $100,000,000 over a period of ten years, was announced by Dr. H. V. Gelfe, regional director of the federal soil erosion service.

The plan is based upon figures showing that there is a $30,000,000 loss annually resulting from water loss and soil erosion in Texas.

The object of the plan will be to control erosion, conserve moisture and check flood damage. All sections of the state are included in the program.

Immediate work is recommended in the southern division of the south plains, in the ranching country of the northwestern and southern division, and in the Rio Grande plains section.

"Key to the City"

Giving the key to the city is an old European custom handed down from the days when cities were more like fortresses, surrounded by stout walls, and people could only enter or leave through the gates that were shut tight at sunset. The keys of the gates were heavily guarded, kept by the mayor or military commander, given up only when the city was defeated in battle and the conquerors had a right to their possession.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

USES FOR VANILLA

Children will drink milk much more readily if it is slightly sweetened and flavored with a few drops of vanilla. Whipped cream is greatly improved when flavored with vanilla.

A few drops of vanilla added to stewed fruits, especially prunes, will greatly improve the flavor. Children especially will eat them more readily. A small quantity of vanilla added to the cream placed on berries or cut-up fruit, emphasizes the delicacy and deliciousness of flavor.

Vanilla brings out the flavor of ice cream or any frozen desserts. A few drops of vanilla added to cooked cereals makes them much more palatable.

Hot cakes or waffles have a new and delightful taste when vanilla is added to the batter.

Egg-nogs are improved by the addition of vanilla.

Apricot pie is greatly improved by a few drops of vanilla.

Practically any recipe for cakes, cookies, pies, puddings, frostings, fillings, custards and puddings is improved by adding a teaspoonful of vanilla.

One housewife purchased an expensive pair of small plucers which she uses to pull the rubber of the glass jar out when she opens her canned fruit. This procedure saves the points of her kitchen knives.

An old silk glove from which you have removed the fingers will prevent your hands from getting calloused if worn while doing a large ironing.

Vinegar and salt will remove the ring formed on glass bowls and vases that have held cut flowers.

Don't leave cream or milk bottles without their tops. The contents too easily absorb odors from other foods.

Old fruit jar rubbers can be used to hold cloth or paper covers on jars containing jelly or jam. They can be slipped on much more quickly than strings can be tied on.

If you thoroughly wet with cold water the shells of eggs you are going to boil before dropping them into the boiling water, they will not crack.

If you are in a hurry to cream butter, place the mixing bowl with hot water, then wipe dry and proceed to cream the butter in it.

Grant, Lee Meeting Place

The meeting place of General Grant and General Lee at Appomattox is marked by a tablet which bears this inscription: "On this spot Gen. Geo. Ulysses S. Grant, U. S. Army, and Gen. Robert E. Lee, C. S. A., met on the morning of April 10, 1865."

Hot Breads

Once having formed the habit of making hot breads, they are really little trouble and there is no necessity for a sameness in their service, especially if we plan them.

True, we must have a standard basic formula, but the variety may be infinite. For example, our muffin batter may have a little minced ham stirred into it—only a leftover ham sufficient to give flavor to the batter.

Velvet Waffles.

2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons melted shortening
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups milk
Cooking oil
Cinnamon
Butter
Powdered sugar
1 tablespoon sugar
2 teaspoons baking powder.

Heat the waffle iron over a slow flame, turning several times to insure even heat. Make a greaser by tying a little wad of well washed cheesecloth to a fork. Dip this in cooking oil and rub waffle iron well, leaving no superfluous oil. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Mix melted shortening with the milk and add, then the well beaten egg yolks and last the stiffly whipped egg whites. Stir hard until batter is smooth. Put four tablespoons of batter in the center of the iron, one in each section, and close down the top. Bake for a minute, then reverse the griddle and bake that side. Do not be in a hurry to lift the top and if it seems to stick, bake a little longer. The waffles should come out golden brown, crisp and light. Butter each and sprinkle with cinnamon and powdered sugar, mixed; or just butter and serve with honey or with syrup.

Biscuit Sticks.

Make a rich biscuit dough, knead rather more than usual to get a smooth texture. Roll this, shape with a small cutter. Butter one round, and lay another on top. Brush top with melted butter. Bake a light brown. Cut thin boiled tongue and cooked chicken. Lift off biscuit tops and butter lightly, put in a combination layer of ham and chicken, replace top and fasten with a wooden toothpick by which "bites" may be held.

Clover Leaf Biscuits

2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons shortening
About 2/3 cup milk.

Sift together the flour, salt and baking powder, rub in the shortening with the fingers and mix to a light dough with the milk. Divide into portions about the size of a walnut, work these with the fingers just until the surface is smooth, place three portions side by side in previously greased muffin pans to form a clover leaf and bake about 15 minutes in a hot oven—375-400 degrees F.

Maple Rolls.

1 quart flour
1 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons shortening
About 1 1/2 cups milk
1 cup grated or scraped maple sugar.

Sift together the flour, salt and baking powder, rub in the shortening with the tips of the fingers and mix to a rather stiff dough with the milk. Roll out on a floured board and cut into rounds with a large sized cutter. Spread with the maple sugar, wet the edges of the rounds slightly and fold one half of each roll over the other. Place on a slightly greased baking sheet, let stand for 10 minutes and bake in a quick oven—375 degrees F. 12 to 15 minutes. If desired the tops of the rolls may be brushed over with milk before baking, to glaze and brown them.

"Letter" Defined

According to the United States Post Office department: "A 'letter' is a message, notice or other expression of thought sent by one person to another. It is just as much a letter if sent in an envelope from one to another, unsealed as if sealed, or whether in an envelope at all. If it is directed as a letter, if matter conveys live, individual, current information between the sender and the addressee, upon which the latter may act, rely or refrain from acting, such matter is a 'letter' within the meaning of the private express statutes."

Giant Jungle Animal

Twenty-five million years ago the Gobi desert in eastern Asia was a paradise of woods and waters. Through its jungles ambled the hugest land mammal that ever lived, a giant of flesh nearly 18 feet tall and 30 feet long, rather resembling its modern relative, the rhinoceros. The animal was the baluchitherium, so named because the first fossil remains were discovered in 1811 in Baluchistan.—Literary Digest

Residence of French President

Since 1873 the official residence of the French president, the Elysee palace, corresponds to the White House in Washington. It is not open to the public as is the White House.

Not Circulating Library

The library of Congress is not intended as a lending or circulating library, but as a reference library and permanent store house of human knowledge. Only certain officials at Washington are entitled, by statute, to the privilege of drawing books for home use. Special permits to borrow books are freely issued by the library, however, to persons engaged in research, and there is also maintained an interlibrary loan system by which books may be loaned to other libraries for use of those engaged in serious investigation.

"Flowage Rights"

The expression "flowage rights" refers to the right of overflowing land, when a dam is built for the purpose of furnishing irrigation or power. The person whose land is overflowed has a right to compensation for any loss. When the right of overflowing a person's land is purchased, this is referred to as flowage rights.

City Called "Porkopolis"

Cincinnati, Ohio, was for some time called "Porkopolis," because of the large numbers of hogs that were driven there in droves from the southern counties. Frequently the eastern, as late as 1850, were literally filled with these animals on their way to the packing houses.
